

MOZZALINA

PROTEIN SOURCE WITH ORGANIC HEMP

VEGA DELICIOUS, VEGA PRACTICAL:

the first vegan mozzalina ball in brine and a practical pouch

Mozzalina is just as tasty as the popular mozzarella ball: like mozzarella, this plant-based innovation – made from purely natural ingredients – can be used when hot or cold and is 100% vegan. Made with local raw hemp (organic quality), it is a proper source of protein. And it doesn't contain any additives. A Clean-Label Product fit for today's nutritionally conscious.

Only as good as what's in it: Vega Lecker isn't just committed to sustainability when it comes to raw ingredients. The RÜCKER Vega Lecker Mozzalina packaging is 100% recyclable too.

Considerably higher sales through placement at eye level in the vegan department*
